FOREWORD

As we step into the World of 1942 we find a war-torn and shattered remnant of a once glorious globe.

Today, as never before in the history of this world, liberty loving peoples look to one country for leadership, America.

Americanism and democracy, key words of the destiny of our children, stand foremost in the minds of all of us.

It is appropriate, therefore, that we choose as the theme for the '42 "Crest" the first inhabitants of our native soil, The American Indian . . .

ELIZABETH LEININGER
Editor-in-Chief

RALPH HACKWORTH
Business Manager

Dedication

With appreciation for his faithful and successful leadership as adviser of the "High Times" and "Crest," for his honesty and sincerity, and for his exacting but friendly personality, we dedicate this, the twenty-ninth volume of the "Crest," to Mr. S. Henry Bennett, leader, scholar, and teacher.

Track

Second row: Burnett, Davis, Jacobs, Rosser, Hendrix, N. Jefferson, Ricketts, and Duckworth.

Third row: Gordon, Pearson, Hughes, McDow, C. Jefferson, Hawkins, Lucado, Travis, and Lackey.

Fourth row: Manager Harvey, Coach Everett, Viar, Evans, Morris, and Manager Turner.

The Track Team this year has not been as successful as previous years' teams. This is due to the fact that most of the lettermen of last year graduated. The team this year has been made up of inexperienced men, who show prospects of developing into good track men by next season.

Of the few experienced men, outstanding this year as a consistent winner of points has been Captain Killis Howard. Others who have been consistent point winners have been Jimmy Holloran and "Sparky" Blanks.

Tennis

Second row: Bacon, Robinson, Captain Fox, Moser, and Freeman.

Third row: Wohr, Harris, Bibee, Horner, and Coach Smith.

REGULAR TEAM MEMBERS

Sam Bibee, Clifford Fox, Charles Robinson, Walter Freeman, George Dawson

The E. C. Glass High School Tennis Team, with Clifford Fox as its captain, had five letter men returning from last year. By winning over Danville, the team qualified for the State Finals at the University of Virginia. Because of transportation difficulties, intramural contests were predominant this year.

Girls' Basketball

Second row: Dunnaway, Pillow, Lichtenstein, Turner, Worley, Saunders, and Downey.
Third row: Ellett, Ashworth, Ricketts, Smith, Jacobs, Vandergrift, Ward, and Barksdale.

Girls' Basketball is the major girls' sport. More girls go out for this sport than for any other. The various teams have very active schedules and play against a number of teams from nearby places.

This year another successful season was completed with the Senior Blue Team winning third place in the City League. This is something worth noting since most of the other team members had had several years experience as compared to only one or two for the Glass girls.

Girls' Sports

Second row: Ashworth, Dunnaway, Tankersley, Lichtenstein, Blanks, Sumpter, G. Stanberry, and Hippert.

Third row: Ellett, L. Stanberry, Ricketts, Jacobs, Fore, Butterworth, Vandergrift, Franklin, and Creasey.

The Girls' Sports program consisted this year of archery, badminton, table tennis, and shuffleboard as the major sports for fall and spring. The minor sports included softball and volleyball.

On the days set aside for practice and contests all the girls who go out for girls' sports take turns in the various sports that are in season.

Cheer Leaders

Second row: Holston, Wingfield, Holloran, and Cross.

MEMBERS

Frankie Taylor
Elizabeth Krebbs
Sally Ramsey
Peggy Jackson

Brown Holston
Terrell Wingfield
Jimmy Holloran
George Cross

Because of the efforts of our eight capable cheer leaders, the teams sponsored by the Athletic Association have had very successful seasons. Rain, snow, nor sleet could keep these important cogs to our teams from being present at the Glass High games.

All pep meetings held in the auditorium were led by these cheer leaders, encouraging a victorious spirit among their fellow students.

Adding to the friendliness between Glass and our opponents, the cheer leaders carried on a show of good feeling during the athletic events.

The purpose of the Girl Reserves is to give the high school girl an opportunity for fellowship with adults and other girls and to develop certain habits and ideals which make them capable and responsible young women.

This year under the leadership of our new secretary, Miss Martha Thomas, the clubs planned and carried out a program of fun, recreation, learning, and social service.

In November, the district conference was held in Lynchburg with about 100 delegates from other cities. The theme of the conference, "We, the Builders," reflects the interest Girl Reserves take in making themselves a part of the community and national life. This has been particularly true this year, for the Girl Reserves have participated in the Red Cross and other social and defense activities.

"An Army Marches on Its Stomach"

One hundred and thirty-two years ago Napoleon made this famous statement. It's just as true today!

People know good food is the first essential to good health—efficient work—fine morale.

That's why an army of folks daily march to Bibee's and march away with green bags chock-full of good things to eat.

Enlist in the Green Bag Army today—its the happy, healthy, saving way.
